

ESSIC Online Masterclass

10 Dec 2021 - 31 December 2022

Scientific Director: Jean-Jeacques Wyndaele

You are cordially invited to participate in the first online masterclass of the International Society for the study of Bladder Pain Syndrome.

During 4 sessions top level teachers will take you through the actual knowledge of this puzzling and devastating disease. By the end of the course you will have gained a clear image of when to suspect BPS/IC, how to properly diagnose it, including typologie, and the best existing ways for treatment. Social aspects, patient's perspective and psychological consequences will be discussed.

To evaluate your knowledge a list of questions multiple choice will be available.

Best regards
